One day, Diana said, "Bell, your new teacher, Ms. Smith, spoke to me yesterday. She says you must study for the exams to Clover College for two years. Then if you do well, you can study at Clover in Wood town for a year, and after that you'll be a teacher!"

"Oh, Diana! I want to be a teacher! But will it be very expensive?"

"          A           When George and I *adopted you three years ago, we decided to take care of you well. Of course we'll pay for you to study."

When Bell and some of her friends stayed late at school, Ms. Smith always helped them ( ① ) the special exam work after school. Kathy, one of Bell's friends, didn't want to go to Clover, so she went home early, but Mike stayed. Mike and Bell still never spoke to each other. Everybody knew that they were *enemies because they both wanted to be first in the exam. *Secretly, Bell was sorry that she and Mike weren't friends, but it was too late now.

For two years Bell studied hard at school. She enjoyed learning, and Ms. Smith was happy to find that. She sometimes had a good time with her friends or her family. In the evenings and at weekends she visited her friends, walked through the fields with Kathy, or <sup>②</sup>(sit) and talked to George.

One day, Rachel, one of Diana's friends, said, "Bell is a big girl now. She is taller than you."

"You're right, Rachel!" Diana said.

"And she's a very good girl now. She doesn't get into trouble these days. I am sure she helps you a lot ( ① ) the housework, Diana."

"Yes, I don't know what to do without her," Diana said.

"And look at her! Those beautiful grey eyes, and that red-brown hair! You know, Diana, I thought you and George made a mistake when you adopted her. But now I can say that I was wrong. You've taken care of her very well."

"          B          " Diana answered and smiled.

That evening, when George came into the kitchen, he found that his sister was crying.

"What's the matter?" he asked in surprise. "You haven't cried since... well, I can't remember."

"It's just... well, I was thinking about Bell," Diana said. "I'll... I'll miss her when she goes away."

"When she goes to Clover, you mean? Yes, but she can come home at weekends, on the train."

"I'll still miss her," Diana said.

In June boys and girls at Green High School left their hometown, Kingston, for Wood town. They had to take their exams there.

"Oh, I hope that I've done well," Bell told Kathy when she arrived back at Kingston. "The exams were very difficult. 結果がわかるまで3週間待たなければいけないわ。 Three weeks! C"

Bell wanted to do better than Mike. But she also wanted to do well for George and Diana. That was more important to her.

Kathy was the first to hear the news. She visited Bell and cried, "Look, Bell! It's in Father's newspaper! You're first... with Mike... out of all the students on the islands! Oh, how wonderful!" Bell took the paper and saw her name at the top of the list of two hundred. She could not speak.

"Well, now, I knew it," George said with a warm smile.

"You've done well, I must say, Bell," Diana said.

For the next three weeks Bell and Diana were very busy. Bell needed new dresses to take to Wood town.

The evening before she left, she put on one of her new dresses to show George. Diana watched the happy young face. She remembered Bell was a strange, thin little child, with her sad eyes when she saw her for the first time. Then she started crying quietly.

"D" Bell asked.

"I was just thinking of you when you were a little girl," Diana said. "And... you're going away now... and I'll be lonely without you."

Bell took Diana's face in her hands. "Nothing changes. Perhaps I'm bigger and older now, but I'll always be your little Bell. And I'll love you and George and Kingston more."

Diana could not say anything, but she put her arms round her girl and (hold) her close to her heart.

Bell left Kingston and lived in Wood town for the next year. She went to Clover College every day. She sometimes came back to her hometown at weekends, but she had to study hard. Some of her friends at Green High School were at Clover too, and also her enemy, Mike. Bell knew that he often walked and talked with other girls. Bell hoped that she and Mike could have some interesting conversation. But she didn't want to be the first person that spoke to him, and he never looked at her. ⑦

There were exams at the end of the college year, in May. Bell studied very hard for them.

"I want to get the first place," she thought. "Or perhaps I will get the Blue Prize." This was a prize for the student who did the best in English writing, and Bell knew she did well. The Blue Prize paid for a free place for four years at Rose College, one of the best colleges in Canada.

When news of exams came, Bell heard *shouting. Some of her friends shouted "_____ E _____ He's the first!" She felt sick. But just then she heard another shouting. "And Bell's got the Blue!" And then all the girls were round her and laughed.

"George and Diana will be happy!" Bell thought. "Now I can go on studying. They won't have to pay!"

次の手紙は、ベル（Bell）がウッドタウン（Wood town）で生活し始めた頃、ダイアナ（Diana）に書いたものです。
